BC Stone, Sand & Gravel Association

MEMBERSHIP PACKAGE 2022

The British Columbia Stone Sand and Gravel Association is the voice of the aggregate industry in BC. Since 1988, the Association has been actively representing the industry and its interests at all levels of government and in communities throughout BC.

Member Benefits:

- Regular access to other membership to learn from, coordinate with, and improve industry performance and standards, while ensuring a reasonable regulatory environment is maintained by governments
- Effective representation at all levels in government to ensure decision makers from the local council to the cabinet chamber hear the voice of aggregate producers and understand our interests as an industry
- Regular engagement with the Executive and Board of Directors to make sure that membership's voice is heard and conveyed to government and regulatory decision makers
- The inside scoop on potential impacts to the industry, be that regulatory change, tax changes, or potential technological advances that can give you the edge in your business
- Access to the association's newsletter, Screenings Magazine, and the ability to contribute to the ongoing dialogue

Government Relations

Legislative and regulatory issues impacting your business are faced on an ongoing basis. The BCSSGA represents the collective voice of BC's aggregate producers with all three levels of government. Get updates on regulatory issues facing the industry and your business and bring your concerns to the table. Harnessing our power in numbers, the BCSSGA is an effective conduit to for industry consultation and engagement with government agencies and representatives. This is your opportunity to help advance the industry's interests and competitiveness.

Communications

BCSSGA's quarterly publication, Screenings, will be delivered to your inbox throughout the year with pertinent information about the aggregate industry, regulatory issues facing the industry, and updates on the Association's activities. Articles that appear in the newsletter could make a difference in your company's operations. BCSSGA also offers advertising opportunities to promote your company's goods and services to our industry focused distribution list.

BCSSGA Members also receive exclusive access to the BCSSGA Weekly News Clipping service which brings a round-up of industry news to your inbox every Friday. The Weekly News includes association updates and important news bulletins. Make sure you are in the know.

Networking Opportunities

The Association provides the opportunity for companies to grow and prosper. The BCSSGA hosts four annual Members' Meetings, providing opportunities for operators and suppliers to connect. Member meetings are important opportunities to get updates on the issues impacting the industry, BCSSGA activities and often include valuable information sessions on a variety of pertinent topics.

The BCSSGA is pleased to host events across the province, providing opportunities for members to share best-practices and challenges with industry colleagues and peers, engage with local governments and senior staff from the Ministry of Energy, Mines and Petroleum Resources.
